MOTORCAR DISPLAY WILL BE FEATURE OF EXPOSITION

Local Agencies Taking Space In Big Tent; Business Men Are Showing Interest

With six displays of motor cars already scheduled for the Glendale Merchants' Exposition, August 27 to September 3, the event will have the essence of an auto show intermingled with industrial and mercantile exhibits.

Those agencies which already have taken space for motor cars are the Oakland, Buick, Dort, Nash, Studebaker and Ford. The Monarch Auto Supply company, Philadelphia Batteries and W. H. Hooper Service station also will be represented.

Business houses which have reserved space include the H. S. Webb Co., Gilberts Millinery, Brooks Dressmaking Shop, Gordon's, Robinson's Mens' Shop, Page Furniture company, Carlson's Scalp and Facial Shoppe, Glendale, Jewel, J. A. Newton and F. A. Clarke electric companies; Glendale Music company and Barnes-Shuck Music company, Ralph Brown Studio, Harry C. Smith Art Shop; Glendale Hardware, Neale & Gregg, Harry Moore Paint store; H. L. Miller company, Coker & Taylor, C. E. McPeek and the First National bank.

May Enlarge Space

Among the industrial exhibitors are the Sierra Club beverages and Sunsweet Prunes.

Letters are being sent all members of the Chamber of Commerce inviting them to participate in the exposition and with so much space reserved a month prior to the show, H. Elmo LaBreque is making an effort to bring additional canvas from San Francisco to enlarge the "big top" which will be located on Harvard street between Orange street and Central avenue.

GIVING GLENDALE GREAT PUBLICITY

Plenty of Advertising Is Being Obtained Without Aid of Press Agent

As an aftermath of the Elks' convention Glendale is getting a great deal of publicity from its prize-winning float. A half page picture in the Pacific Coast Elk magazine this month and scenes in practically all of the motion picture news reels are attracting much attention to this city.

In the Los Angeles Evening Herald last night a column was devoted to a story about the phenomenal growth of "our northerly neighboring 'city of homes.'" This article alone will be worth thousands of dollars because of the comparative figures regarding America's fastest growing city of its class.

City Has No Press Agent

In this morning's Los Angeles Times Cartoonist Gale gives an idea of beautiful Verdugo Woodlands and the Associated Subdividers' meeting here last Saturday night. Sketches of F. P. Newport, W. L. Twining and James M. Rhoades—all local boosters—appear in life-like relief.

The fine part of this publicity is the fact that Glendale employs no press agent, but much along this line is being obtained by James M. Rhoades, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, who is alive to every opportunity of boosting this city of homes.

Miss Gladys Flagg Is Entertaining Visitors

Miss Gladys Flagg of 149 South Pacific avenue has entertained several friends from Pasadena this week. Wednesday Miss Betty Gregory and Miss Mildred Burner spent the day with her and this week-end Miss Lois Perdue and Miss Thelma Strange will be her guests. Sunday Miss Flagg and her guests, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Flagg, Dr. Chas. E. B. Flagg and son Charles of Pasadena and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cook of Los Angeles will spend the day at Redondo Beach.

OAK STREET ASSOCIATION

Mrs. J. F. Tatlow, secretary-treasurer of the Oak Street Improvement association, states that a special meeting will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tatlow, 311 Oak street. Matters of vital importance relative to the improvement of Oak street will be discussed. Several councilmen are expected to be present.

IMPROVEMENTS IN GLENDALE AVENUE TERRITORY DISCUSSED AT SESSION OF ASSOCIATION

Salt Lake Railway Service Problem Is Taken Up And Considered; Widening Of Street Where It Meets San Fernando Road Is Plan

The street and road committees of the Glendale Avenue Improvement association met last night at the city hall to discuss two petitions which are being prepared for presentation to the city council.

J. F. McClish, O. W. Tarr and F. A. Marek formed the street and road committee. The petition they are preparing to circulate deals with the widening of the street where it joins San Fernando boulevard and with dedicating certain portions in the northern part for sidewalk purposes. No amendments were decided on, but the committee will meet again next week to discuss the matter further.

The committee on the Salt Lake railway question, Herman Nelson, Spencer Robinson, G. B. Woodberry, Mrs. M. L. Tight and H. C. Levy discussed the question of the railroad on Glendale avenue which burdened the street with freight traffic without giving any passenger service. The petition to the city council will ask them to take some action with the railroad officials to relieve this situation, and if they will not act to take the matter up with the railroad commission.

A chart is being prepared showing the valuation of the area contiguous to Glendale avenue, which would be affected and showing that there is enough development on the east side of Glendale to authorize and justify a good passenger service on Glendale avenue. All people on the east side of town will be asked to sign the petitions to this effect.

The fact was pointed out that the Montrose line has been paying well and is to be extended and that its natural outlet is up Glendale avenue. The avenue and the area contiguous to it are already developed to such an extent as to make some sort of railway service necessary, it was declared.

A mass meeting will be called in a week or two at which the matter will be further discussed and the persons owning property in the area affected will then be asked to circulate and sign the petitions.

BIBLE SCHOOL HAS CLOSING PROGRAM

Exercises of Interest and Display of Crafts Is Unusually Attractive

Closing exercises of the Daily Vacation Bible school were held at the Presbyterian church last night. A large audience was present and Rev. Louis Tinning, who has been superintending the school, presided.

"The Story of the Baby Moses" was given by the kindergarten department. The junior boys and girls gave a tableau, "The Story of Ruth" and also a play, "Joseph and His Brethren." The children had been trained by Miss Anita Fletcher for these presentations. Other musical and literary exercises were given by the children.

After the program had been given the audience passed to the Sunday school rooms where specimens of the boys' craft work and needlework by the girls was on display. The exhibit made by the primary and kindergarten departments was specially interesting.

Just 246 Pupils Enrolled

Miss Jennie Horsch has been principal of the school and she has been ably assisted by Misses Mabel Galey, K. Theodora Stadt, Minnie Parks and Bessie M. Field. Miss Elizabeth Mottern taugh music and Paul W. Edmonds craft work. In addition to these much assistance was given by numerous volunteer helpers.

Two hundred and forty-six were enrolled and there was an average attendance of 131. Forty-five children were present every day during the sessions of the school and they were given honorable mention as well as certificates of merit. Plans are on foot for a similar school next year.

Local Girls Return From Honolulu Visit

Miss Alice McCoy and Miss Leta McCoy, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McCoy of 1127 East Wilson avenue, and Miss Clara Glenn of Burbank have returned from a most delightful six weeks' trip to Honolulu. They were met there by Miss Lulu Green, who has been teaching on the island the past year. They also had the pleasure of renewing the acquaintance of Miss Knepper, former English instructor at Glendale Union High school and who is now teaching there. They also visited Lawrence Lawson and William Balthis. During their stay they toured the islands, visiting the volcano and other points of interest.

Mrs. C. M. Huesman Returns From North

Mrs. C. M. Huesman, mother of Mrs. H. M. Doll of 727 South Louise street has just returned from San Francisco where she has been visiting her son, R. C. Huesman, for the past six weeks. Mrs. Huesman is very glad to get back to Glendale as she found the weather exceedingly cold and unpleasant in the north. Mrs. Doll has been entertaining Mrs. A. C. Jansing and son of Louisville, Ky., and the visitors are becoming so attached to Glendale that they are planning to make it their home.

J. A. NEWTON HAS MAGIC RESIDENCE

Electrically Equipped Home Has Many Features for Saving Steps, Labor

Glendale's first entirely electrically equipped residence is soon to be completed at 521 North Jackson street, and will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Newton and two children, who for the last few months have been living in a temporarily constructed house on the rear of the lot.

The house, which is probably the most modernly equipped of any residence in Glendale, is a regular California bungalow, containing five rooms and a breakfast nook.

Mr. Newton, who is the proprietor of the Newton Electric company of this city, personally supervised the installation of all of the electrical appliances, which are to be used in each of the rooms.

"Nothing has been eliminated which can add to the convenience of a twentieth century housewife," remarked Mr. Newton, "and if we find that something has been left out, it won't be for a long time."

House Without Chimney

The most striking and exceptional feature of the "magic house," as it has been called by observers, is the fact that it has been built without a suggestion of a gas pipe or a chimney. The kitchen is fitted up with an elaborately equipped electric range, which is supplied with an electric timing device, automatically turning off at a given time.

A number of electric heaters are distributed throughout the house, the largest one being in the living room. Electric plugs have been installed in each of the rooms, so that any of the apparatus may be connected.

Upon entering the screen porch, in one corner stands the large automatic water heater, which keeps hot water in the tank at all times. In another corner is one of the latest modeled washing machines, which is probably the most common of all electrical appliances. Between the two a recently invented electric ironing board completes the array.

Various other electrical labor savers which have been installed in Mr. Newton's "wonder house" are a sewing machine, portable lamp, coffee percolator, waffle iron and numerous other modern devices.

Dr. Galen Gould and Alma McClure Wedded

The announcement of the marriage of Dr. Galen Gould, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Gould of 106 East Lomita avenue, to Miss Alma McClure of Santa Paula, will come as a surprise to his many friends in this city. The wedding took place three months ago and has been kept a secret until now. Dr. Gould was graduated from Glendale Union high school in 1914 and later studied dentistry. He recently opened an office at Santa Paula, where Miss McClure was his assistant. Dr. and Mrs. Gould are now guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Gould.

PLAN TO ATTEND PAGEANT

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Naudain and daughter Lois of 323 East Lomita avenue will attend the pageant at San Gabriel tomorrow.

LOCAL W. C. T. U. IN ALL-DAY PICNIC

Mrs. Edith Dockeray's Home Scene of Gathering by Glendale Members

The all day picnic of the Glendale W. C. T. U. was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Edith Dockeray and daughter, Mrs. Cleora Headlee, 723 South Louise street, with fifty present. After a fine cafeteria lunch the business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Ruby Smart. Devotionals were led by Mrs. P. E. Keim, honorary evangelistic superintendent. Songs by Mrs. Lucius Richardson and her daughter, Irene, and by the chapter mascot, Zora Glassey, were much enjoyed.

Mrs. Julia P. Phelps, state vice-president, spoke of the task of doubling membership, the goal of the national union being one million members. She also spoke of the importance of law enforcement. Mrs. Phelps urged all who could to attend the national convention at San Francisco, August 18-23. The slogan of the national convention is "A Dry World in 1925."

Young People Needed

Mrs. Hattie Doughty, state superintendent of Y. P. B. and president of the Los Angeles union, which is the largest union in the United States, having a membership of 600, spoke of the need of enlisting the young people in the work of the union.

Dr. Libbie Ashcroft gave a short but pleasing message as county superintendent of child welfare. She asked the Glendale union to supply her with posters to be used at the coming fair at San Fernando.

Visitors introduced were Mrs. Rumber, delegate to national convention from Georgia; Mrs. Hughey, former president of Hollywood union and now a resident of Glendale; Mrs. Perkins of Illinois. Mrs. L. A. Morey and Mrs. Lem Ornsby, former members of the South Hollywood W. C. T. U. gave their names as members of the Glendale union.

DELIGHTFUL TRIP TAKEN TO ISLAND

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hellyer and Guests Entertained by Company Officials

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hellyer and family of 365 Milford street and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hellyer, brother and sister-in-law of C. D. Hellyer, enjoyed a most delightful trip to Catalina Island on Thursday as the guests of officials of the Santa Catalina Island company, who extended special courtesies to them.

The party was met at Wilmington by E. K. Wood, superintendent of the company, and J. H. Patrick, president, who escorted them on boat and gave cards of introduction to D. M. Renton, vice-president, at Avalon.

Mr. Renton took the party around the island in his private car, after which luncheon at the St. Catherine's hotel was partaken of. In the afternoon the party was taken aboard the glass bottom boats and shown the submarine gardens, returning to Los Angeles the same evening.

C. R. Hellyer is police inspector at Portland, Oregon, and is enjoying a week's visit with his brother in Glendale.

Dr. E. O. Thayer Is Enjoying His Vacation

Dr. E. O. Thayer, pastor of the Casa Verdugo Methodist church will spend the month of August in the mountains, enjoying a well-earned vacation. This is the first rest Dr. Thayer has taken in two years. During his absence Rev. Julius Soper, former pastor of the church, now retired, will arrange for different clergymen to take his place. Dr. Soper is expecting his son, who will be one of the teachers at the Methodist Assembly, to be in Glendale part of the summer and is hoping that he will fill the pulpit more than once.

ATTENDS CAMP MEETING

Dr. Julia White of 228 East Maple avenue is spending the day at Alhambra, attending the services at the Seventh-day Adventist camp meeting there.

VISITING AT LONG BEACH

Mrs. Mary McGowan and granddaughter, Miss Mildred Randolph of 416 North Jackson street, are spending a few days at Long Beach as the guests of Mrs. McGowan's daughter, Dr. Lovell.

BANDITS RIFLE MAIL COACH ON MANHATTAN LIMITED

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 30.—Two bandits rifled the mail coach of the crack Manhattan limited on the Pennsylvania lines in the mountains near Altoona, early today and escaped, after shooting John Lantz, a mail clerk of Thompsontown, Pa., who resisted. According to postal authorities here, the bandits escaped with at least one pouch of ordinary mail. This pouch, it was said, was found near Cassandra, where the bandits left the train after compelling the engineer to stop.

TO OPEN NEGOTIATIONS FOR RETURN OF SHANTUNG

HONOLULU, T. H., July 30.—Count Obaka has left for Pekin where he will open negotiations for the return of Shantung to China, according to a Tokio dispatch to the Jiji, a Japanese language newspaper published here. Obaka has been in attendance at the Tokio conference of Japanese ministers and colonial officials for the last month. The dispatch expressed a belief that the proposed withdrawal of Japanese from Siberia will be postponed because of the recent anti-Japanese activities of bolshevist elements.

FIND BODY OF SLAIN WOMAN IN FRONT OF HOTEL

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., July 30.—The body of a woman identified as Mrs. Charles Slawson of New York was found in front of the fashionable Miramar hotel shortly after midnight today. She had been shot through the right temple. Detectives are seeking to verify the identification of Mrs. Slawson, and get in touch with friends or relatives in New York. Guests at the Miramar hotel, in the fashionable Montecito district of Santa Barbara, agreed today that none had heard the shot which killed Mrs. Slawson.

ONE OFFICER KILLED, TWO WOUNDED; FIGHT MADMAN

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, July 30.—Frank Wilson, member of the police department since 1909, is dead and Officers William Milke and James Bailey are in a hospital as the result of a battle with John Broksmit, electrician, who, becoming a violent maniac last night when cornered, whipped out a gun, fired three bullets through the head of Wilson and one through his abdomen. He was charged with first degree murder in court this morning.

RUSSIAN FAMINE VICTIMS FIGHT TO SECURE RELIEF

RIGA, July 30.—Fighting has begun between starving hordes in Russia and inhabitants of the districts untouched by famine, according to dispatches received here today. A party of hungry refugees was massacred at Ekaterinburg when it tried to rush the town and seize food, one report said. Twenty thousand men, women and children are dying daily in the famine, soviet newspapers admit. Scurvy and other epidemics have broken out. As the long column of ravenous, plague-ridden victims swoop down on towns where there is plenty of food, the inhabitants confront them and try to turn them aside by force. They claim they are acting in defense of their homes.

RICHARDSON WHITE TELLS OF PLANS OF EDUCATORS

Local School Head Returns From Convention; Gives Resume of Session

Richardson D. White, superintendent of the Glendale city schools, who has been at Des Moines, Ia., attending the National Educational Association convention, returned to his home here early today after visiting relatives and friends in Missouri, Kansas and California points.

Two outstanding features of the convention in the mind of Mr. White are the work of the committee on salary, pensions and tenure which is striving toward obtaining for the teachers all over the country what now obtains in California, and the fact that the program of the N. E. A. stands for six years of elementary work, three years' junior high school and three years' senior high school, similar to what is being worked out in Los Angeles now.

"Newspapers Rule Language"

Mr. White was impressed with the statement by Prof. H. W. Davis head of the English department at the Kansas State Agricultural college, which was to the effect that "newspapers and not teachers rule the language today."

Fred M. Hunter, superintendent of the Oakland, Calif., schools, retiring president of the N. E. A., summarized the ideals and accomplishments of the organization, according to Mr. White, in an address opening the convention. Briefly stated, they are:

"First—To preserve the democratic ideals of America through universal good citizenship made possible by educating all the children in right citizenship practice.

"Second—A school system in every community properly supported financially with well-trained teachers, able to educate all the children until they are 18 years of age and to Americanize all non-American elements in our population. This includes high school for all children—not for one-third—junior high

ADOLPH HAHN IS BACK FROM TRIP

Glendale Man Tells About Condition In Germany; Learns Sad News

It was a sad day for Adolph Hahn of 325 Ivy street, this city, when he recently arrived in his native town of Kriftel, Germany, to visit his sister, Mrs. Katherine Hoss, with whom he had not corresponded since 1914. Instead of being met at the station by his favorite "Katinka" he was told that she had been dead over four years.

Now Mr. Hahn figures that his trip was entirely useless, as the main purpose of the journey was to bring his sister back to live in this country.

"My mind is in a whirl and I don't know what to do," despondently soliloquized the unfortunate Mr. Hahn. His latest disappointment only adds to the grief which he has had to withstand during the past year, his wife having passed away in January.

Mr. Hahn returned to his home on Monday of this week, after being away three months. He came directly from Germany, making the trip in record time. This was his fourth trip to his former home since coming to the United States in 1870.

He spoke briefly of the present condition of Germany, and also of the attitude taken by the people. Although the nation has been handicapped since the signing of the armistice, he claims that manufacturing and other business throughout the country are gradually assuming normal conditions. Sawmills are running at top speed and a considerable amount of building is being carried on.

Financial Situation

The financial situation, according to Mr. Hahn, is in a most deplorable condition. The rate of exchange has dropped "out of sight" and the best paid workmen are hardly able to exist. The mark, which should normally bring about 25 cents in American money, is now valued at less than 2 cents.

The morale of the people, however, is much better than would be expected under the circumstances. Mr. Hahn says that it is a usual occurrence to see every available member of each family hard at work. In order to "make both ends meet," he remarked, most of them work ten, twelve and fourteen hours seven days of the week.

Your Daughters

"Turn, if you please, the pages of your memory to the daughters of some of the men you knew in the long ago. Some of these were men of means, long passed away, who would almost give their immortal souls could they prevent the suffering and hardship that some of their daughters are today enduring—hard work, boarding houses, back streets, poverty. Those men loved their daughters even as you love yours, and they were level-headed even as you are, BUT they overlooked a tragic fact that others did not have the care and love for their daughters that they did."

If those little daughters of yesterday had been protected by a "continuous income" policy how much suffering and privation they would have been spared! THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE for it.

BOYS MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO GAIN FIRST BICYCLE

Plenty of Pep Is Displayed by Club Members; Not Too Late to Join

With cooler weather, more pep is being displayed by the entrants in The Glendale Evening News Bicycle Subscription club.

All yesterday and this morning A. T. Blanford, manager of the event, was kept busy taking in new yearly subscribers from the energetic crew of youngsters who are out to win a $65 Harley-Davidson bicycle.

Boys were spurred on to greater effort when they read in last night's edition of The Glendale Evening News that a girl was leading. They got busy and, oh, what a bunch of subscriptions they brought in!

Each and every one who is working seems to have an excellent chance of winning a wheel by September 1. And some of them are going to obtain the required twenty new yearly subscribers long before that.

New entrants are making haste to catch up with those already nearing the goal as it will be a decided honor to be "first." But the burning question of the day is:

Will a boy or a girl get wheel No. 1?

Every Piece Folded to Your Heart's Desire

What's more aggravating than napery and linen out of shape, and other flat pieces all askew?

Or what so sets off the beauty of silver, or so enhances the table as a cloth pearly white, with every detail of design showing clear and embroidery standing out like beautiful embossing?

No housewife is more considerate of linen, more exact with every fold than we—giving beauty with cleanliness has been our one endeavor these many, many years.

Fine finishing of flat work, however, is only one of the many features of our service. You can send us anything in the family washing—whatever is washable—and save money and yourself.

HERE'S EVIDENCE IT IS EASY MATTER TO WIN BIKE

Boys and Girls In Various Sections of Country Get Wheels by Working

From all over the country comes stories of boys and girls winning bicycles in newspaper subscription clubs. Practically all of the rules are equal and it is surprising how some sections display more enthusiasm than others in events of this kind.

For instance, among the first to win from a Los Angeles morning paper was a little lad way out in Las Vegas, Nev. He got his in ten days while hundreds of youngsters were enjoying the "all year 'round climate." Some may think it is too hot to work here, but how about that boy up on the Nevada desert?

Sam Carroll won his wheel from the Birmingham, Ala., News in less than two weeks. Sam is making all of the boys there jealous with his fully-equipped bicycle.

Got It in Three Hours

Back in Louisville, Ky., hot weather holds no terrors for the youngsters who are in the Courier-Journal's bicycle subscription club. Russell Ruez said it took him a little more than three hours in the L. & N. railroad shops on payday to get his required number of new subscriptions.

The Glendale Evening News is making one of the fairest offers in the country—twenty new yearly subscribers or their equivalent. It is less than a week's work for a mediocre solicitor, yet this paper will give a $85 Harley-Davidson bicycle to the boy or girl who can turn the trick by September 1.

Crime Slumps Here In Month of July

July proved to be the lightest month in the year for Police Judge F. H. Lowe. He handled a total of 182 cases with $1,013.50 in fines. Practically all were for traffic law violations, the only exceptions being the following charges: Assault to commit murder, obtaining money by false pretenses and a lone drunk.

Following is a list of the traffic cases: Open muffler, 84; speeding, 37; parking in safety zones, 16; turning between intersections, 14; cutting corners, 10; parking near fire plugs, 5; no license plates, 4; reckless driving, 3; driving on wrong side of street, 3; improper lenses, 2; ignoring signals, 1.

DR. C. A. BURROWS DESCRIBES AUTO TRIP IN NORTH

Camp Ground Provided by Ashland, Ore., Is Very Attractive, He Says

Editor The Evening News:—A description of some of the points of interest we saw on our vacation this year may be of interest to your readers.

My wife and I with our three children left here the last of June for a month's tour by auto. Our first point of special interest was the geysers in Lake county. At this place there is a narrow canyon about half a mile long where nature seems to be concentrating her efforts at steam production. From the bottom of the canyon to the top of the mountains on either side steam is bubbling and hissing through every hole and fissure in the ground. Standing on the cliff and looking down, the canyon looks like a veritable hades. At two or three places holes have been dug and pipes inserted from which steam is constantly shooting like the exhaust from a large boiler. There is here a well drilling outfit sinking a pipe hoping to tap one of the main veins of steam and to use it in the production of electricity as is done in Italy. Great possibilities lie here and if they are successful in controlling these forces now going to waste there is scarcely any limit to the power that may be developed.

There is located at this place mineral waters such as soda, sulphur, iron and arsenic which is common to many places, but there is one spring different to any I have ever seen elsewhere. From this the water tastes almost identical to lemonade without sugar. We put sugar in some and found it a very good substitute.

Follow Eel River

Leaving the geysers we followed the Eel river about 100 miles through Mendocino and Humbolt counties camping along its banks. The road and scenes all along Eel river were very good, but twenty-five miles near its mouth the road, though a mountain road, was smooth and but for the frequent curves would permit a speed of thirty-five miles per hour nearly all the way. This is the best piece of mountain road I have ever seen. For miles we passed through a wonderful forest of tall, straight pine and redwood trees. It was along this road we passed more beautiful camp sites in proportion to the distance traveled than any and many people are taking advantage of these natural play grounds.

Perhaps the most picturesque drive was the first twenty miles north of Eureka, because there was not only a fine forest but a profusion of shrubbery such as ferns five or six feet high and quantities of wild blackberries, raspberries, salmonberries, thimbleberries and hazelnut. They were so dense that it seemed they were trying to crowd each other out. Wherever a bank or log was exposed it was covered with moss and ferns. This country has a very heavy rainfall amounting to five or six feet every winter and during the summer a fog comes in nearly every night. North of Eureka the road follows the coast for about 100 miles and is a very beautiful drive although the road is quite rough. The most striking thing about this drive is that you will be going through dense forest and suddenly emerge on the cliffs several hundred feet above the breakers overlooking the ocean.

Auto Camp Enjoyed

At Ashland, Oregon, we went into the auto camp to stay over night, but found it such a delightful place that we stayed nearly a week. This is a small town with a population of about 6000, but they have a park that a city of 100,000 might well be proud of. Lithia park begins at the business district and extends up a very pretty mountain stream for about a mile and a half, the upper half of which is devoted to an auto camp. Several hundred campers were there all the time we were. This park has the natural beauty of a mountain stream with wooded banks but the enterprising people have added to its attraction by careful development. Mineral waters have been piped seven miles to the park and very pretty fountains built. Incidentally, I observed that many places are bidding for the auto tourist by attractively equipping auto parks. At Ashland we not only enjoyed their park, but found an abundance of fine Oregon cherries, of which we are very fond. I hesitate to say how many we ate but assure you we made the most of our opportunities.

From Ashland we went to Crater lake, a most remarkable place. The lake is circular, about three miles in diameter and the banks nearly perpendicular for a thousand feet above the water. As you stand on the bank and look down into the water you see the most blue imaginable. The beauty of this coloring is what attracts the tourist most of all. One cannot help realizing that you are standing on the edge of a great extinct volcano that has filled with water. The water is more than 2000 feet deep. This is by far the most beautiful body of water I have ever seen.

On our way home we visited Lake Tahoe, and I shall never forget the view we got of the beautiful Emerald Bay as we drove around the southern border of this great mountain lake.

NOTED PIANIST FOR FEATURE TONIGHT OF VAUDEVILLE

Hans Hanke Heads Program, Glendale Theatre; Antonio Moreno In Picture

The Glendale Theatre tonight will present as a headline attraction on the Meiklejohn & Dunn show, Hans Hanke, international vaudeville star and celebrated pianist. Four selected high-class, standard attractions are included on the vaudeville program and in addition the feature picture "The Three Sevens" starring Antonio Moreno will be included.

Despite rumors to the contrary, the prices will not be raised for this special show, the usual Glendale Theatre prices prevailing. The first show starts promptly at 7 o'clock and announcement has been made that absolutely no one will be seated during Mr. Hanke's occupation of the stage. Being an artist of high standing Mr. Hanke's contract with Meiklejohn & Dunn bears this provision, therefore it behooves Glendale folk to attend the show early or else wait until the 9 o'clock show.

schools for adolescents, neighborhood or Americanization schools, home teachers for Americanization work, vocation classes or schools, a flexible system of promotion, courses of study scientifically adapted to the needs of children and the definite measurement of results.

These Results Sought

"At the present time the National Education association is attempting to bring about the following results:

"A removal of illiteracy from the United States.

"The Americanization of all un-Americanized elements.

"A professionally equipped teacher who is an American with American ideals in every classroom in America, equally open for all children whether foreign or American born.

"Universal physical fitness.

"The co-ordination of all public and private agencies studying the problems of education in the United States.

"A national department of education with a secretary in the president's cabinet.

"A well-knit, coherent, co-operative organization within itself."

Visits Boyhood Home

Mr. White left Glendale on July 1 and arrived in Des Moines July 4, the opening day of convention which held morning, afternoon and evening sessions until Friday afternoon, July 8, when it closed. From there the Glendale delegate went to St. Louis, his boyhood home, and renewed former acquaintances. He also visited the state teachers' college at Cape Girardeau, Mo., where he was an instructor prior to coming to Glendale. Relatives in Kansas and the Santa Clara valley, California, also were seen on the return trip. His daughter, Helen, met him at San Francisco.

Farmers throughout the corn belt are hard hit, according to Mr. White who had occasion to notice economic conditions. "During the war when prices were high they bought land and stock. Now they cannot meet their mortgage obligations at present quotations on grain and cattle.

"We cannot appreciate the prosperity here until we compare conditions with those in the east."

AUTOMOBILE SECTION

Glendale Evening News, July 30, 1921

WHY DO THEY DO IT? COSTS BOTH TIME AND MONEY

On ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, said some wiseacker in years gone by. And he said something which motorists might take at heart today.

They will insist on wearing an old tire until it blows out—usually forty miles from nowhere.

They will start on a long trip without a sufficient supply of gasoline or lubrication.

They will disregard loose parts until they lose them—and be towed into a garage.

Sooner or later an automobile must be taken to the garage for a general overhauling. Now that many cars are returning from strenuous vacation trips is it not wise for readers to consider what the garage men have to say in the advertising columns of The Glendale Evening News?

It is their best medium for telling you of the class of service they render.

Likewise you will find suggestions for your comfort, information on new models of motor cars and other business-producing arguments in the display advertising of this automobile section.

You can afford to "look me over."

Some Queer Things In Automobile Language

Did you know that a "chauffeur" was only a fireman, and by rights the word should only be used of the driver of a locomotive? That is only one of the queer things about automobile language which has been developed by our comparatively modern industry.

"This term 'chauffeur,' it seems, is a hand-me-down from the days when the driver of an automobile was in reality an engineer, and when the motor vehicle itself was a steam-driven thing. The term has also an old French derivation, which derives it from the word meaning 'robber'; but this seems to have been forgotten when the term engineer or fireman was developed.

"'Tonneau is a good French word and means a tank, and was originally applied to the circular lines of the rear seat. There is a cart known as a 'tonneau' in France today. 'Chassis' is a frame and 'garage' means a railway siding. while 'limousine' hails straight from the home of china, Limoges, where the peasants wear a hood. Later a cart with a hood over it came to be known as a 'limousine,' and it was transported into the motor car lingo without any change.

"The derivation of the language of automobile seems to be entirely French, and some of the derivations lend favor to the idea that the French are not entirely devoid of humor, as they are sometimes given credit for."

Auto Trades Meeting to Be Held Wednesday

Notices have been mailed members of the San Fernando Valley Auto Trades association that a meeting will be held Wednesday night, on August 3, at 8 o'clock in the Jesse E. Smith Ford agency salesrooms, Broadway and Kenwood street, Glendale, for the consideration of important business.

W. A. Roake Garage Business Increasing

W. A. Roake, who has established a garage at 926 South Branad boulevard recently, reports a constantly increasing business, especially among motorists who formerly patronized him at 1006 South Brand. In the new shop which was built especially for machine work and repairing, Mr. Roake is daily adding new equipment which will make it one of the foremost places of its kind in Glendale.

Discount Is Offered In Repairing of Cars

An announcement of great importance to the motorist in need of repairs is the offer made by the Day and Night Garage, 217 East Broadway, to give a 25 per cent discount on all work during the month of August. It will pay people to do without their pleasure cars for an evening now while getting repairs made at night at reduced rates.

Claude Berger Tells of Big Fish Catch

Claude Berger of 403 East Lomita avenue went fishing by boat off Santa Monica yesterday and reported the catch of fifty mackerel in three hours. He brought them home and started out early this morning for another barrel of fish. Ernest College, who accompanied him, only caught twenty-three but he was game to try his luck again today.

TIRE WEAR WILL RESULT

If a demountable rim is not fastened carefully in place on the wheel additional tire wear will result, due to the rim not running true. Each wedge should be tightened carefully to insure correct alignment of the rim on the felloe. A little care in this respect will not only insure a tight rim and a true wheel, but also better tire mileage.

MAKE INSPECTION OFTEN

On account of the heavy strain to which the bolts of a demountable rim are subjected it is advisable to make frequent inspection and see that all the nuts are kept tight. If the threads of any bolts are worn, put in new bolts, as a serious accident may occur if the threads strip and the rim comes off.

SAME EQUIPMENT BEST

It is not advisable to use a non-skid tire on one rear wheel and a plain tread tire on the other rear wheel. The plain tread tire will be forced to do the skidding and will wear out much faster. It is best to equip both rear wheels the same in order to obtain uniform tire wear.

PICNIC BEING PLANNED

STUDEBAKER STORY IN THREE FITS; IT'S NO FABLE

Will George Ade Look Over This, Then Crank Up and Try to Do Likewise?

CHAPTER I

Down through the Roaring Town came a Big Noise. Not a Kid nor a Pup failed to Savvy. It was just the Great Commotion accompanying the Arrival of a Fleet of new Busses. They were of Gas Variety, Studebakers by Reputation, and Some Cars. They were a Quintet, Four of a Kind in the Light Sixes and an Ace of a Sedan.

This was yesterday at Sunset when Steve Packer and his Pack drove from the Salt Lake Station to the Studebaker Agency. And what Gets Steve and Don and Richford and the Rest is the Fact that Enough is an Unknown Word. These Like the Rest are practically Sold before they're Shined Up for Doting Drivers.

CHAPTER II

Lionel Scheuer, Our Widely Known Resident who Hangs Up His Hat at 333 North Jackson street when he isn't a Merchandise Salesman—for That's Him—has Taken Unto Himself a Big Six Studebaker. He Makes the Route from Los Angeles to Seattle and Way Points four or five times in the Calendar's Change. It was Economy for Him to Have a Car. That's why he Picked a Studebaker, he says.

CHAPTER III

Over Winding Mountain Trails the Old Boat has Done 61,000 miles. Never a Whimper has the Studebaker Big Six given West F. Ross, hydraulic engineer of 622 North Isabel Street. The Big Jobs call him where Men are Few and Motorcars Fewer. However, the Studebaker's Sturdy enough to Make the Grade and That's the Reason why Mr. West put Several Simoleons into a new Big Six. His Former Friend, which ought to be a Wreck, is getting Dolled Up and when Prospective Purchasers ride in it, Oh Boy, they'll say "A Car Like This is a Pride and Joy Forever."

MORAL: George Ade might have been a famous ad writer had he applied his fables to facts about automobiles.

Auto Stolen, Found, Thief Arrested, While Owner Attends Party

F. C. Butterfield of 246 North Orange street claims he's one of the luckiest persons in Glendale. His contention is based on the following peculiar episode, which took place on Tuesday night of this week:

Butterfield and his friend, Mark Francy, of 136 North Kenwood street, accompanied by several out of town acquaintances, motored to Los Angeles early in the evening, where they attended an entertainment. At a late hour, when the gay party of young people emerged to the street, they were dumbfounded to find Mr. Butterfield's auto had been stolen.

Mr. Butterfield immediately telephoned to the Los Angeles police station and reported his loss.

As he afterward said, "You could have knocked me over with a feather when the desk sergeant told me to come up to University station and get your car, and he would also show me the fellow that took it."

Upon arriving at the police station he found out how, through an extraordinary coincidence, his machine had been recovered. At about 11 o'clock a patrolman on Vermont avenue had hailed a driver for cutting the corner at Twenty-fourth street.

"Who's machine is this?" demanded the officer.

"My father's," said the driver, who was but 19 years old.

"Let's see your driver's license," was the order.

Failure to comply with this and other requests resulted in the boy being taken to the University station, where he was forced to confess that he had "borrowed" the automobile for a couple of hours. He said that he was out of money and took the machine to go to the beach and get some money from his father. The money, he claimed, was to be used for purchasing several articles for his mother, who was in a Los Angeles hospital.

After a careful investigation in which he has consulted both the boy's parents, Mr. Butterfield declares he will make every attempt to free the "poor kid" and "give him another chance."

FREE RIMS FROM RUST

Go over the rims and free them from rust so that tire changing may be easily done. Heavy rust should be filed off and finished with sandpaper wrapped around a block of wood. Then use aluminum paint or the special rim paint.

WET RUBBER CUTS EASIER

When the roads are wet it is advisable to avoid driving fast over sharp stones and in car tracks. To cut rubber easily one usually wets the knife. The same principle applies to conditions surrounding the use of tires.

Studebaker
California's Favorite Car

What's the Answer?

The overwhelming increase in Studebaker sales for 1921 over 1920 is due to the satisfaction of owners with Studebaker performance.

Buyers are now selecting cars on the basis of performance, quality and just prices—therefore Studebaker leads in sales over all other makes with the single exception of Ford.

STEADY DEMAND FOR NASH AUTO, SAYS SALES MANAGER

Director for South Section Tells of Value Lines Demanded by Public

Among the recent sales of the Nash motor cars reported by the local representative, E. B. Sutton, were: Nash "four" to H. J. Vanderhoff, Nash "six" roadster to Dr. Graham of Van Nuys, and Nash "six" green sport model to F. F. Dettenthaler.

Purchasers of Nash cars are at present permitted to use Mr. Sutton's demonstrating model until deliveries can be made. A large number of purchasers are demanding an increased number of extra refinements in the form of tonneau windshields, etc.

Mr. Sutton has received an interesting letter from H. J. Coger, who directs the sales of Nash cars in sotherun California and Arizona. As the letter refers to prices, it will undoubtedly find plenty of attention.

Passes to Value Stage

That the automotive sales market has passed from a price stage to a value stage is the assertion of Mr. Coger. According to him the new prices, which went into effect recently on all Nash cars, have resulted in greatly stimulated business. In commenting on the situation Coger said:

"The fact that the public realizes that the prices of standard lines of cars are becoming stabilized is proven in the increased volume of business that this company has had since the reductions went into effect.

"For a number of months the public has been basing its judgment in car purchasing on price. Now, however, the true standard, that of quality, is again being used, as the majority of cars are now being sold at figures closely approximating those of pre-war times. The present Nash reductions represent lowered production costs in the two Nash plants, one at Kenosha and the other at Milwaukee. These savings, attainable only because of the efficient and economical methods of Charles W. Nash, one of the country's highest authorities on production methods, are now being passed on to Nash buyers.

Policy of Fair Dealing

"It has been long the established Nash policy, which has been carried on to the Nash distributors and dealer organizations, to always deal fairly and squarely with the public. It is our belief that the policy has been as highly important in our success as has been the quality of the Nash product.

"The Nash Motors company has publicly committed itself to continuously pursue the policy of steadily building a better value and holding to existing prices until new economies in production are effected. This is the explanation why with the announcement of these reduced prices, this company has been able to advertise that with these prices goes an even better car than was produced before."

C. A. Wendling Is Booster for Nash Car

C. A. Wendling of Hutchinson, Kansas, who will be the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. Grant Brown, of 326 East Colorado boulevard for several weeks, is a great booster for the Nash automobile. Carrying a capacity load of five passengers, Mr. Wendling drove his Nash from his home in Hutchinson to this city in ten days, without the "slightest sign" of car trouble. Even the tires arrived in California still containing Kansas "cyclone air."

Mr. Wendling was accompanied on his trip westward by Mrs. Wendling, his daughter Miss Dorothy Wendling, Mrs. C. A. West and Fay Holmes.

Picture Is Artistic and Spectacular, Too

The finest and most artistic as well as spectacular and interesting thing that Director Marshall Neilan has yet done for the screen is his production of "Bob Hampton of Placer," at the Palace Grand for the last times today.

Custer's last stand against the Sioux, as reproduced on the silver-sheet in this masterful motion picture, is the great compelling climax to an absorbing story of romance and adventure.

Bob Hampton, portrayed by James Kirkwood, is an outcast from the army—an ex-officer. He becomes a gambler, also foster father to Dick, a little waif. He saves a young girl whom they call The Kid. Lieutenant Brant, for the death of whose father Hampton had years ago been held responsible, falls in love with The Kid. Then comes the Battle of the Little Big Horn, in which Bob Hampton proves his innocence and is restored with honor to the rolls of the army. Marjorie Daw, as The Kid, plays the leading feminine role.

EFFICIENT SERVICE PROVES CHEAPER FROM EXPERTS

Good Mechanic Paid Good Wages, Does Good Work and Also Speeds Up

"When you drive into a garage in your travels about California you will find that the majority of the clean, attractive places of business render the best service for the least money and that these places belong to the California Automobile Trade association and display the insignia of the blue wheel and the golden radiator. This insignia is now becoming a nation-wide sign of quick, efficient service," according to Ray L. Galvin of the Buick agency here, secretary of the San Fernando Valley Auto Trades association.

"There is much discussion among motorists in regard to charges for labor in various parts of the country. This phase of the charge system should not bother you at all.

"If you drive into a garage that charges $2 an hour for the job and get the job done in half an hour, and done right by an expert who knows his business, it is a great deal cheaper than taking the car to a garage which charges $1 an hour and takes three hours to do the same job and the repair is not well made.

Getting Good Wages

"Men who know their business in the automotive industry are many, but they demand, and are getting good wages for their services. The wise garage man pays them well, gets a good price for his repair work, and charges accordingly, and reduces the total cost of the repair to the consumer by efficient methods.

"The aim of the California Automobile Trade association is to equalize charges as much as possible and educate garage and repair men to get good mechanics, serve the customers well and do business on a business basis. The association has succeeded in educating most of the men in the business and is continuing the good work."

T. W. WATSON FILES REPORT RELATIVE TO POWER PLAN

Makes Detail Statement on Meeting In Pasadeno on Water Development

Relative to the meeting of the Southern Branch of the California League of Municipalities held in the city of Pasadena on Friday, July 22, which he attended at the suggestion of the city council, T. W. Watson, city manager, Thursday night submitted the following report to the council:

By T. W. WATSON,
City Manager of Glendale

The meeting was held in the rooms of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce, with Mayor Horace Porter of Riverside as chairman and Grant Lorraine, city manager of Alhambra, as secretary of the meeting. There were about fifty present. The cities of Los Angeles, Long Beach, Riverside, Pasadena, South Pasadena, Alhambra, San Bernardino, Covina, Anaheim, Redlands, Santa Monica and Glendale were represented.

Mayor Porter in stating the object of the meeting said that the conservation and development of the water supply of the state of California and the development of the state's hydro-electric power possibilities should go hand in hand and that taken together they constitute one of the most important matters to be considered by the people of California in that the question is directly before the people of the state now as to whether the hydro-electric energy that may be developed within the state of California and other states adjacent thereto shall be owned and controlled entirely by private corporations, or shall the major portion of it be retained for direct ownership and operation in the interests of the people.

Opposition Causes Notice

He called attention to the efforts that were now being made to create opposition on the part of the other cities of southern California to the efforts of the city of Los Angeles to develop hydro-electric energy and especially to the efforts of that city to secure for Los Angeles and southern California a share of the power to be developed from what is known as the Boulder canyon project on the Colorado river, and in order that the position of the city of Los Angeles might be clearly understood in regard to these matters Mr. Scattergood, chief electrical engineer of the Bureau of Power and Light of the Public Service commission of the city of Los Angeles was invited to attend the meeting and discuss these matters with those present.

Mr. Scattergood in an informal talk freely punctuated with questions from his auditors, clearly set forth the reason why Los Angeles had filed upon the Boulder canyon water site. In his statement he said that privately-owned power corporations had filed on all the available water power sites along the Colorado river excepting the Boulder canyon project and that Los Angeles had filed on the Boulder canyon power site for the purpose of protecting it against filing thereon by private corporations in order to preserve it for direct use by municipalities and other political sub-divisions, for which the power generated through the development of this project might be made available.

Policy of L. A. Set Forth

Mr. Scattergood filed a letter in behalf of the public service commission of Los Angeles setting forth clearly the policy of that city in regard to this matter. He said that Los Angeles wishes to share in this development with the other cities of southern California. It favors the development of the project and its permanent control by the federal government; this being in his opinion the most equitable method.

The meeting in general was interesting in that it brought out clearly the fact that there is to be in California in the near future a great question to be settled by the people of the state, that is, shall the hydro-electric power development of the state be entirely in the hands of private interest, publicly controlled, or should it be fostered and developed through the agency of the state and political sub-divisions thereof and a portion of it retained directly by its people.

It was also interesting by reason of the fact that it was shown clearly that the committees appointed by the League of California Municipalities at its last meeting held in the city of Chico working together with the city of Los Angeles and representatives of other cities of the state are planning to secure legislation by which the state, municipalities and other subdivisions thereof may join in the development of hydro-electric power. If the legislation now being prepared is had in the near future it will be possible for a city situated as Glendale is along with other cities having common interest to join in the development of hydro-electric energy paying its proportionate part and receiving therefrom the power that it would thereby be entitled to. The Boulder canyon project was especially interesting in this connection and the plan for its development is as follows:

That it be developed by the federal government, the object of such development would be three-fold. First, flood control; second, conservation of water; third, development of hydro-electric energy. Five per cent of the cost of the dam would be charged to flood control; 10 per cent to water conservation and 85 per cent to hydro-electric energy development. Any state or municipality, or other political sub-division may file on a proportion of hydro-electric energy that may be developed by this project that it may need and for which it may be willing to pay its proportionate part. If the city be large enough and be in a position as the city of Los Angeles is, to construct its own hydro-electric plant and transmission lines it would be free to do so. It would not be economically practicable for small cities to do this. It is entirely practicable for a large number of them to join in one hydro-electric plant and transmission line and bring power to southern California.

Mr. Scattergood, however, made it very clear to those present that the city of Los Angeles is willing to cooperate with the other cities of southern California in the construction of a hydro-electric plant and transmission line for the use of all the cities of southern California in connection with the development of the Boulder canyon project. From the foregoing we are led to believe that this is a matter in which the city of Glendale is directly interested and one in which it should continue to take an active part. One of the resolutions adopted by the meeting was as follows:

Resolution Is Adopted

"Resolved, that we urge such action by congress and the federal power commission as will exclude private interest from development of the Boulder canyon project and to permit immediate construction of such project by the federal government under such terms and conditions of participation by the state of California and any political sub-division of California and the southwest in costs and benefits as may be established."

In this connection we desire to call attention to a statement issued by Rudolph Spreckles, William Kent, William Kehoe, Horace Porter, John R. Haynes, L. L. Dennett and William J. Locke, launching an initiative campaign to amend the state constitution to provide for unified state control, development and distribution of all water and hydro-electric energy in California. The amendment was prepared in a series of conferences covering more than six weeks in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Sacramento.

This is a direct result of the efforts of the committee appointed to look into these matters by the League of California Municipalities at the last meeting thereof held in the city of Chico. The meeting held in Pasadena last Friday was of the southern branch of this committee of which Mayor Porter is chairman.

Major League Fights for First Are Close

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, July 30.—Neck and neck all the way seems the prospects for the major league pennant races.

Seldom, if ever, have the battle for the championships been as closely contested and as uniformly alike as they are now in both leagues.

Pittsburg, leading the National League, and Cleveland, out in front in the American League, have both won sixty games and lost thirty-four.

The New York clubs, both acting the roles of runners up, are but a fraction dissimilar. The Giants have won fifty-eight games and the Yanks fifty-seven. Both have lost thirty-four games.

Pittsburg goes right along, clinging to the lead. Much depends for the rest of the journey on what the Pirate pitchers will be able to do under the strain.

The Giants are battling along right within striking distance of the leading Pirates, but with a club that seems to yet lack what McGraw wants in it.

The Giant pitching has been one of the greatest handicaps so far in the race. Efforts are being made to secure another experienced hurler, but the attempt to secure Lee Meadows from the Phils seems to have fallen through.

The acquisition of the hard hitting "Irish" Meuzel will help the club on the offense, but the most glaring need of the club is defensive strength in the box.

Cleveland is out in the lead in the American league principally because they have the fighting spirit. The Indians have encountered enough this season in the way of accidents and disappointments to send a less courageous club down to the bottom.

Improvements Made at Thornycroft Recently

Favorable comment has been created during the last week by the improved appearance of the Thornycroft Sanitarium and Hospital on the corner of Adams street and Windsor road, due to the addition of a new awning and various other alterations. The awning, which is made up of stripes in the beautiful Italian color scheme of blue and gold, has been hung across the entire front of the recently completed second story addition.

This addition, which consists of an elaborately appointed apartment which is being occupied by Mrs. N. Maxwell Miller, the owner of the institution, is at present being remodeled at the west end into an outdoor living and sleeping room. Immediately behind this combination, which has numerous windows facing on Windsor road, there will soon be established a modern conservatory of flowers, to contain hundreds of varieties of ferns, shrubbery, herbs and other hot house treasures.

Thornycroft has an average of about sixty patients throughout the year.

'BLUE LAWS' TOPIC OF ADDRESS AT CAMP MEETING

Sunday Closing Movement Is Not Favored; Local Folk Present at Alhambra

Declaring that the alarming increase in juvenile crime could be traced to the neglect of proper parental training, and that the only hope for the future, not only of the church but of the nation as well, is a return to old-fashioned home training, Prof. C. L. Benson, evangelist for young people delivered a stirring arraignment of the laxity in present day family life at an afternoon service in the mammoth pavilion at the Seventh-day Adventist camp meeting at Alhambra which is attended by many Glendale people.

"The agitation for Sunday legislation in California is a part of a campaign being waged throughout the United States by the National Reform association and the Lord's Day Alliance," declared W. F. Martin, field secretary of the Pacific Religious Liberty association, in an address at night.

Speaking on the "blue laws" Martin said, in part: "A Sunday closing law was introduced into the California legislature two years ago, and, after being considered by the assembly, was defeated. Following this defeat, the advocates for blue laws started a campaign in the state to get their ideas incorporated into city statutes in every part where there seemed sufficient voting power.

Measure Is Rejected

"During the two years a large number of Sunday closing ordinances have been introduced into different municipalities, and their adoption has been urged upon city councils and boards of trustees and supervisors. The last and most spectacular of these efforts was at San Francisco where a strong endeavor was put forth to secure the passage of a Sunday closing ordinance. However, after long and oftentimes heated arguments by both sides of the controversy, the board of supervisors finally rejected the measure.

"The latest session of the legislature considered petitions throughout the state and 135,000 signatures against the proposed measure were secured. This measure was also defeated by a large majority in the senate. Such history could be recited of Sunday law efforts in other parts of the country.

"It will be interesting to note the following statement reported to have been made by Dr. Bowlby, the official of the Lord's Day Alliance: 'We propose by legislation to make it easier for people to go to church. In other words, we shall try to close the baseball parks, the golf links, the motion picture, and other theatres, the concert halls, the amusement parks, the bathing beaches, and so on. We shall seek to restrict the sale of gasoline for pleasure automobiles, and urge other measures that will stop Sunday automobiling and joy riding. Excursion steamer rides on Sunday will be opposed by us on the ground that they are unnecessary to the moral welfare of Christion America.

"Drift Back to Church"

" 'Of course, we shall back no law that would compel a man or woman to attend church. But we believe that if we take away a man's motor car, his golf sticks, his Sunday newspaper, his horses, his pleasure steamships, amusement houses and parks, and prohibit him from playing outdoor games or witnessing field sports, he naturally will drift back to church. We shall seek to eliminate the huge Sunday newspapers. I see no reason why the public libraries or the art galleries should remain open on Sunday.'

"These words very well represent the aim of the Lord's Day Alliance. Seventh-day Adventists are opposed to all legal restrictions that tend to bind the conscience. Seventh-day Adventists believe in keeping the seventh day for the Sabbath, but do not believe in forcing by law their religion upon other people. All such legislation is opposed to true Americanism and the principles of liberty upon which our government is founded. Each man has a right to choose his day of worship, and should be protected in that right. No one should be restricted in keeping a day, nor should he be punished for doing an honest deed on any day. Such legislation as this would be absolute tyranny. All true lovers of liberty should resent such an invasion of their rights."

Few Words Cost Big Sum Yearly, Estimate

NEW YORK, July 30.—"You're fired," and "I quit" cost one American industry $100 000,000 last year, the American Engineering council declared today.

The council, making public a report of its committee on the elimination of waste in industry, declared the metal trade firms lost that sum through unnecessary labor turnovers. With an accompanying idleness of machinery, the loss reached $1,000,000, the report said.

Foreign Exchange Is Not Stabilized From Settlement, Is Claim

NEW YORK, July 30.—Frank O. Watts, president of the First National bank of St. Louis, who was chairman of a financial group at the International Chamber of Commerce meeting in London June 27, returned yesterday aboard the White Star liner Adriatic.

The reparations settlement, he said, will in no wise stabilize foreign exchange and this can only be accepted through the law of economic and a generation of barter and trade.

Mrs. J. W. McAllister, Los Angeles, her daughters, the Misses Josephine and Mary, and her son, Harold, said they were returning to San Francisco after spending thirteen months touring Europe, pleasure bent. They brought many trunks of Parisian creations.

Another passenger was Alice Brady, movie star. She was accompanied by her husband, James L. Crane, son of Dr. Frank L. Crane. She brought Thadford Thane, a wire-haired fox terrier, from the court of St. James and announced her trip to London and Paris in quest of "fine feathers" had been disappointing.

No foreign gowns, she said, could equal in beauty those to be found in New York, Chicago and the coast.

Mrs. Louise Crichton, of San Diego, Cal., was also a passenger.

Edward Parker Bitten by Poisonous Spider

Edward Parker, of 632 South Verdugo Road, who has been spending his vacation cleaning vacant lots, was stung by a small spider last Thursday while working in the Casa Verdugo district. He paid no attention to the matter and went on working, but presently noticed that his arm was swollen and beginning to pain him.

When the pain became severe, he left work and came to Glendale to see a doctor, but by the time he reached the doctor's office the arm was twice its natural size and turning black.

The doctor rushed him to the Glendale Research Hospital and by severe lancing and very stringent methods, checked the blood poison that was apparently setting in. Parker, who is 17 years, is glad he still has his arm, but will not be able to use it for some time.

An amphibious gun mount tractor has been invented which can travel under water to a depth of twelve feet by means of a periscope attached to the carburetor so it can get air. It can make ten miles an hour under water.

VARIETY OF BOOKS FOR YOUNG FOLK ARE RELEASED

Plenty of Vacation Reading Is Assured; Boy Scouts' Sets Prove Popular

With the splendid selection of new books released in the young folks' department at the Glendale public library, there is no reason why the entire summer should not be one glorious vacation time, as good books are always considered one of the most important factors toward the success of any vacation.

Among the books released in this department during the past week are the following:

"Jungle Roads and Other Trails of Roosevelt," by Daniel Henderson. A book which will be enjoyed by all who appreciate redblooded adventure.

"Girls in Bookland," by Hildegarde Hawthorne. Little journeys with favorite characters through the wonderland of books.

Pawned to Another

"Pawned," by Frank L. Packard. By a curious turn of fate, each character in this book finds himself pawned to another. None can act as he himself desires, but only as another dictates.

"The Ridin' Kid From Powder River," by H. H. Knibbs. A virile yarn containing all the zest and swiftness and color of the west.

"The Yellow Horde," by Hal G. Evarts. A vivid and striking story of wild animal life.

Two very interesting sets of books are the "Boy Scouts of the Air," by Gordon Stuart and "Dave Porter," by Edward Stratemeyer. These include the following volumes:

"Boy Scouts of the Air on the French Front." Boys of all ages will enjoy this story of high adventure, of combats in the air, and of courage.

"Boy Scouts of the Air on Lost Island." One might think that seventeen-year-old boys have no business fooling with airplanes, but not after reading this story. The tone of the tale is wholesome and the action, with all its liveliness and real thrill, is clean cut and worth while.

Along Mexican Border

"Boy Scouts of the Air in the Lone Star Patrol." A story with a backbone to it, the scene of action being laid along the Mexican border.

"Boy Scouts of the Air in Belgium." True to life and the facts of the war. Not sensational, but full of thrilling incidents.

"Boy Scouts of the Air on the Great Lakes." A story of unexpected discoveries, accidents and rescues.

"Boy Scouts of the Air on Flathead Mountain." The story of the rescue by airplane of Boy Scouts marooned on top of Flathead mountain. A story of mystery.

"Boy Scouts of the Air in Northern Wilds." The theft of plans concerning inventions and improvement of airplanes, and the story of capture of the thief.

"Boy Scouts of the Air in Indian Land." The story of an exciting hunt for the "Thunder Bird."

"Boy Scouts of the Air at Greenwood School." The tale of the theft and capture of a secret airplane.

In Northern Michigan

"Boy Scouts of the Air at Eagle Camp." A nest of gold eagles in a tall tarmarack, a lost hunter, a forgotten mackinaw coat, conspired to send the golden eagle patrol of Boy Scouts up into the woods of northern Michigan. Their experiences make a very readable story and the interest is kept up until the boys return home, successful in much more than they have undertaken.

Dave Porter is a favorite hero of American boy readers. Dave's activities take a very wide range and wherever he is found he displays true American energy, ability and honor.

"Dave Porter at Oak Hall."
"Dave Porter in the South Seas."
"Dave Porter in the Far North."
"Dave Porter and His Rivals."
"Dave Porter on Cave Island."
"Dave Porter and the Runaways."
"Dave Porter at Bear Camp."
"Dave Porter Under Fire."
"Dave Porter's War Honors."

Informal Meeting Is Held by Local Legion

In order to allow a number of the officers and members of the local post of the American Legion to attend the Los Angeles county inter post council banquet held at Pasadena last night the regular weekly business meeting of Glendale Post No. 127 was called off at the last minute. The twenty members who had gathered at the hall for the meeting, however, enjoyed themselves in an informal social evening.

Tentative plans were made toward making next week's meeting the largest and most lively gathering of the summer. Special entertainment, a big "feed" and other features will fill out the evening's program. Ten candidates will be initiated at that time.

Governor Small Will Fight Arrest, Belief

By LAWRENCE BENEDICT
United Press Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, July 30.—Len Small, governor of Illinois, today went about the people's business but stayed out of Sangamon county.

The governor, indicted on a charge of diverting millions of dollars for his personal benefit, began a tour of northern Illinois counties with a view to letting contracts for good roads.

Down at Springfield, Sheriff Henry Mester held the bag in the shape of two warrants for the governor's arrest, awaiting for his bird to come back to the capitol to roost.

The course of procedure which the governor will follow fighting the charges against him, which he declares are the result of a political plot, was mapped out at a two-day meeting of the governor with his five attorneys here. Friends of the governor said the decision was reached to fight the battle out on the original contention that he is not subject to court procedure.

"I do not propose to be annoyed any longer in serving the people," the governor said. "Others are trying to keep me from looking after the affairs of the people, but I propose to go ahead and do my duty.

"I am going to stick to business as closely as possible and will not tolerate any further interference. I believe I have wasted too much time on them already."

Pastry Is Directed at Socialist Speaker

BOONE, Iowa, July 30.—Iowa is giving Mrs. Ida Couch Hazlett, New York socialist leader, a decidedly unkind reception.

A jeering crowd tried to obstruct her open air speech here. Doughnuts and other forms of pastry were thrown at her, but she persisted and finished her talk, although almost drowned out by the shouting of the crowd.

Fights in the crowd were stopped by the police. W. H. James, commander of the local American legion post, tried to induce her to stop talking, but Mrs. Hazlett demanded his arrest and continued her speech.

Mrs. Hazlett declared that President Harding was a "mere figurehead" and that "Secretary Hughes was the real head of the government."

Among fossils found in the lime pits at Torrance, Calif., was a tooth of some prehistoric fish so large as to indicate its owner's size was larger than any animal now living. With one-third of the tooth missing the remainder weighs nearly two pounds, is five inches long, four inches across the base and nearly two inches thick.

Blonde Being Sought In Spurgin Mystery

CHICAGO, July 30.—"A blonde without visible means of support who maintains herself in luxury," was reported missing today by authorities trailing Warren C. Spurgin, fleeing president of the Michigan Avenue Trust company. Detectives were convinced that the blonde was a fugitive with Spurgin.

Witnesses were found today who declared Spurgin, accompanied by another man and two women drove up to the bank at 9 p. m. on July 17. After the men spent nearly an hour in the bank they rejoined the two women and drove away. That was the last positive trace of the banker. The man who was in the automobile was identified and is also missing. Charges holding him equally responsible with Spurgin for looting the bank, may be made.

Auditors who went over the concern's books today continued checking up. They found the shortage would total approximately $1,000,000. Depositors may receive 65 cents on the dollar.

The blonde in the case was traced through a chauffeur. He instructed the woman how to drive a new automobile. He said a man who he was certain was Spurgin was often in the blonde's company.

"She spent money like water," the chauffeur said. "She often gave me a $10 bill for nothing at all."

Although detectives on Spurgin's trail found it often crossed by women, they believe the blonde was the first in his affections and that she is with him on his flight.

Five other women who were his companions at various times were located and questioned.

Mrs. Spurgin and her daughter, Vivian, were permitted to remain at their home after making a complete statement to the police.

The Warren Oil company, another concern to go down in the bank's crash was in the hands of a receiver today. Spurgin was president of the company.
